

The drink for the regions in Brussels

Increasing the engagement of partners and the visibility of ESI Funds

We would like to invite you to the eight REGION drinks on October 19, 2016, doors open at 17:00, speeches start at 17h30 to 19h00 on the fourth floor of the House of the Dutch Provinces (HNP), Rue de Treves, 59-61 in Brussels.

The REGION drink "Where regions and Europe meet", is a joint initiative of MEP Lambert van Nistelrooij and the HNP. Rob van Eijkeren, Head of office House of the Dutch Provinces, will welcome you warmly.

The introduction is provided by MEP Lambert van Nistelrooij. A speech is then given by Marc Lemaître, the new Director-General for Regional and Urban Policy, European Commission.

The Director-General will give his vision on Regional and Urban policy, his vision for the challenges ahead and how the Commission, Member States, regions and cities can realize this together. Important as policy close to the citizens is needed more than ever. After the introduction and the speech, there is plenty of opportunity for questions and discussion.

Do not miss this unique chance to meet the new Director General!

Kind regards,

Lambert van Nistelrooij, Member of the European Parliament

Rob van Eijkeren, Head of office House of the Dutch Provinces
